IRS Questions & Answers

Q. If there is a change from SSN to a Fed ID that is not for a corporation, payments should be reported as recorded for both.

Response: Answer to Question 1 FED received after SSN was provided to payer - allocate payments to SSN between January and the date the vendor provides the federal ID number. After receiving federal ID number, allocate remaining payments to federal ID number.

Q. If there is a change from SSN to a Fed ID for a corporation, the payments under the SSN only will need to be reported (unless medical then both need to be reported).

Response: Answer to Q 2 Vendor incorporates and submits Corporation's federal ID number. If payments to vendor are $600 or more for the year Form 1099MISC can be filed under corporate ID number even if payments were not for medical or attorney fees. Allocate payments in the same manner as stated in Answer #1

Q. If it is found that a Fed ID or SSN is wrong and corrected via a W-9 form from the vendor, the payments can be moved to the correct Fed ID or SSN for 1099 reporting purposes.

Response: If the vendor provides confirmation of a correct Tax Identification Number (TIN) or the agencies received a B-notice from IRS that the TIN is incorrect, move payments to the correct TIN.

Q. How would a State Agency handle a 1099-INT received from a company they regulate (i.e. insurance company). According to the company they paid the Agency interest?

Response: According to the Instructions for Form 1099-INT, there is no requirement to report interest income payments to a state. A state is considered to be an exempt recipient. You may contact the insurance company and ask them to file a correction because your agency incorrectly received Form 1099-INT. In addition, please refer the filer to the IRS ECC Customer Service Section at 866-455-7438 for information on filing a corrected return.

Q. Should Board Members that are not employees receive a 1099MISC form if there services consisted of reviewing documents for a State of Georgia Agency?

Response: According to "Instructions for Form 1099 MISC," payments made in the course of the payer's trade or business for services performed by non-employees, which total $600 or more in a calendar year, are reported in box 7 on Form 1099 MISC, unless the payment is one of the exceptions listed on page MISC-1. Payments to Board Members representing compensation for services are not an exception.

Q. I pay for the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council and for the victims program of Georgia. Payments to counties are coded as medical payment for people who are victimized. Should this entry be coded with a 1099 code and a 06 code?

Response: According to the instructions found in Regulation §1.6041-3. Payments for which no return of information is required under section 6041 the following entities are exempt recipients:

A State, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, a political subdivision of any of the foregoing, wholly-owned agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing... A payor may treat a person as an exempt recipient under this paragraph (c)(1) without requiring a certificate if the name of such person reasonably indicates it is described in this paragraph (c)(1) or if such person is known generally in the community to be a State, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States or a political subdivision or a wholly-owned agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing (for example, an account held in the name of "Town of S" or "County of T" may be treated as held by an exempt recipient under this paragraph.

Therefore counties in the State of Georgia are exempt recipients. You are not required to file Forms 1099-MISC for exempt recipients
